BADMAN MEETS THE BATTLE-CUB

THE kid walked his grey slowly into the town of Burley, Colorado. He had ridden far across the badlands, and the saddle was covered with the alkali dust that had settled on his shoulders. His young face was caked with the powdery dust that still could not hide his features, drawn and tired with travelling. He walked the grey up to the saloon that had the words "FREE LUNCH" painted on the windows. He unmounted, tied his horse to the hitching post, and walked stiffly up the board-walk steps.

From inside he could hear the loud talking, the noisy music of the player piano, and the laughter. He brought his right hand down to his gun-butt and tested its draw, as he always did. His holster was well greased and it slid in and out easily. People usually noticed that his holster was cut away low, and tied down on his right thigh with buckskin thongs. And people knew that a gun is carried like that only when the wearer is prepared to draw for his life in a gunfight. That was the sign of the gunfighter, and they were usually surprised to see a young kid wearing it. When they saw his face and his soft blue eyes, they usually forgot his gun.

He shouldered his way through the bat-wing doors. It was dim and dingy inside, and he had to squint to make out the faces of those at the tables. He looked around carefully and then walked over to the bar.

"Milk," he said.

The bartender set him up, and he downed the white stuff in a gulp. He put down a silver dollar and started to move away, when one of the drunken rannies lurched up against him.

"Excuse me," said the kid.

"Why don't ya watch out?" snarled the man.

The kid didn't answer, but started to move out the door.

Joe Black and Craw Burns had watched the young traveller come in and take his drink. Joe leaned over to Craw, and said:

"There's a good one fer our purpose. A stranger in town, 'n he wears his .45 like a gunfighter."

"But he's only a kid," said Craw.

"Sure," argued Joe, "but when they look for someone to take the rap for the murder of Harry Knowles, and we say we caught the kid at it, and killed him in self defense, well they'll sure as shootin' believe us."

Craw scratched his stubble chin and said, "Well, mebbe you're right. He does look like a gunfighter, but these kids are always pretendin' to be tough."

"That's right," said Joe. "Now I'll foller him and find out where he's goin' tuh be stayin'. That way we'll know where to find him when we want him."

Joe Black followed the young stranger out of the saloon and watched him walk across the street to the Burley View Hotel. Through the window he watched the kid sign the register, and then he saw the clerk give him the key to room "40". That was all that he needed to know. He hurried back across the street to where Craw Burns was waiting. They went to their table to discuss plans for the frame-up . . .

The stranger tossed his saddlebags on the bed and looked around the dollar-a-day room. It was no palace, but then he'd slept in worse places. Right now he knew that he had come to do a job, a very special one. He'd come to find, and kill, the man who'd bushwhacked his best friend. Word had it that that man was to be found right here in the town of Burley, Colorado, and it was here that he'd stay until he avenged that foul murder.

He took off his shirt, filled the basin with water from the porcelain pitcher, and washed the grime from his body. Then he took off his shoes and went to sleep . . .

It was night when he awoke. He dressed and went down into the street in the direction of the saloon. When an old wrangler stopped him for a match, he asked the man, "Do you know where I can find a feller who came to this town about six months ago? Has a scar across his cheek — from ear to jaw — on the right side."

The old man thought for a minute, and then said: "M-mm, scar huh? Sounds like Joe Black. He and his crony, name a' Burns, hangs out in that saloon over there. Better watch out, sonny. They's a couple a bad hombres."

The kid thanked the man and continued on his way. He was about to turn up the street into the saloon when he heard a whistle from the alleyway.

"Pssst! Hey, stranger!"

The kid turned to see who was calling him. He saw a tall figure standing in the alleyway, and the man was beckoning to him. Instinctively his right hand brushed his gun butt as he walked over to the man.

"You calling me, pardner? What c'n I do?—"

His words were cut off by the feel of a gun muzzle in the small of his back.

"Take it easy, kid. Don't go reaching for that gun of yours, and you won't get hurt."

"What's this all about?" the kid asked.

"Ain't about nothin'," snapped Craw Burns. "You just killed Harry Knowles, here, and we caught you in the act."

"What in the world are you talkin' about? I never—" He stopped when he saw the body lying there, not six feet away. There was a long knife sticking out of the man's back. He looked closely at the man who held him captive.

"Is this a frame-up?" he asked.

That made Craw burst into laughter. "Hear that, Joe? The kid wants to know if this is a frame-up. Don't that beat all? Ha-ha! Kid, you killed this guy, see? And Craw Burns and Joe Black caught you in the act and gunned you down, afore you could get away. Now, that wouldn't be a frame-up, would it?"

The kid bit his lower lip. "Joe Black, you say?"

"Yep! I guess you've heard of us. We got pretty big reputation. Fact we got about the biggest reps in the whole west."

"I wouldn't say that," sneered the young captive.

Joe walked over, out of the shadows. "What do yuh mean, you wouldn't say that? Who d'yuh think y'are, talkin' tuh us that way? Draw yer gun, button, and I'll put a few lead 'uns right through yer heart."

The noise had grown so loud by now, that some of the men had gathered on the street outside the saloon. This disturbed Craw, but Joe Black, riled up by the kid's attitude was getting ready to make his play. He decided to make it public.

He shouted: "All right, you low down, murderin' skunk! Draw yer iron! I'm avengin' the death of Harry Knowles!"

The kid saw out of the corner of his eye, that Craw Burns was getting ready to take him from the right side. He was under crossfire, although the watchers would never see it in the dark. There was only one thing to do under the circumstances. He stalled for a moment, and then he threw himself to the ground, lunging at Craw Burns. Burns came toppling down in a tangle with the kid, preventing Joe Black from being able to shoot. The stranger knocked Burns out with his gun butt. Then he came up shooting. Joe Black crumpled to the ground in a heap. The crowd came pushing into the alley.

"We heard it all," said one of the men, "we heard that they wuz framin' yuh, and we knew they wuz out to gun Harry Knowles. Yuh don't have tuh worry."

"I'm not worried," said the kid. He walked toward the hitching post where his mount was hitched and untied the reins.

"Wait!" said another of the men. "What's your name? We got to put it on their tombstones in Boot-Hill."

The stranger turned to look at the four men who were looking up at him. He smiled, and said: "You could put down that they was shot by the Kid." He spurred his horse, and as he rode down the street he shouted back: "Billy the Kid!"

WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT PIMPLES

Acne, Blackheads, and other externally caused Skin Blemishes

WHEN pimply skin is your problem, the first thing to get straight is that you can and should do something about it. To develop the attractiveness of your face is not mere vanity. It is an "open sesame" towards bringing the real YOU closer to other people and giving your personality the poise and confidence it needs. Your good qualities—intelligence, character, dignity—all go to naught... are completely cancelled out by a skin that "nobody loves to touch." Remember, the YOU that people see first is your face.

SKIN PROBLEMS DEMAND IMMEDIATE CARE

Medical statistics tell us that blemished skin usually occurs from adolescence on through adult life. The problem at the adolescent stage is serious enough to deserve attentive care as a family matter. In adulthood, when life's responsibilities are so much weightier, it is doubly important to exert great effort to eliminate these blemishes. And, there is no better time to get pimples under control than now.

DON'T ABUSE SKIN

The first instinctive reaction to pimples and blackheads is to squeeze them out with your fingers. A bit of experimentation along these lines soon provides convincing proof that this succeeds only in inflaming your skin and spreading the infection. Under no circumstances should pimples and blackheads ever be squeezed.

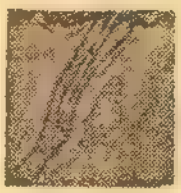
MICROSCOPE SHOWS IMPORTANT BASIS FOR EXTERNALLY CAUSED PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

Let's take a look through the microscope to see what's behind those unsightly pimples. The high-powered lenses show your skin coated with a covering which originated from two sources—one, internally and the other, externally.

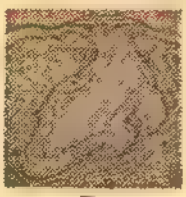
The internal substances on your skin include dead cells, residue from the sweat glands, and a high quantity of oil excreted by the sebaceous glands. A most important factor in skin disorders occurs when thousands of these tiny sebaceous glands discharge more oil than the skin can use for lubrication. Unless special care is given, the oil forms a heavy film which attracts foreign matter to your skin much as any oil mop picks up dust. These infectious external substances may be classified into three general groups:

1. Airborne materials such as dust, pollens, condensation products of smoke, vapors, etc.
2. Materials brought in contact with the skin, such as tiny fragments of clothing, bedding, cosmetics.
3. Micro-organisms such as bacteria and fungi.

See the difference between a healthy skin and a pimply skin in the microscopic reproductions below.



A. Normal skin



B. Sick, pimply skin

Diagram A shows a normal-size, smoothly functioning sebaceous gland. Diagram B pictures sick, pimply skin. Notice that the sebaceous gland is a swollen mass of trapped oil, waste and infectious bacteria.

TRY THIS SENSIBLE WAY

Two sensible aims to achieve in controlling this skin condition are: to clear the pores of clogging matter, and to inhibit the excessive oiliness of the skin. Toward these ends, Dornol Products' research makes available two formulas. One is to aid in thorough cleansing by highly detergent penetration which simplifies the removal of waste and foreign matter. The other is to discourage oiliness with clinically-proved ingredients, and to kill infectious bacteria often associated with externally caused pimples and blackheads.

BLEMISHES COVERED UP

To remove the distressing embarrassment of these skin blemishes, the second Dornol formula exerts a "cover-up" action on your broken out skin while the medication does its work. This, plus its pleasant odor, will spare you the mental distress which is associated with unsightly, malodorous, medicated preparations. Imagine! You can apply this Dornol formula to your skin by day and face the immediate present with greater confidence in your appearance, while secure in the knowledge that medication is acting to remove old blemishes and keep away new ones. What this "cover-up" action alone is worth in peace of mind is beyond calculation. No longer need prying eyes make you wince with humiliation and misery. Now because of this wonderful feature of the Dornol treatment, you can put your best foot forward ...at once!

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK

We know what the Dornol treatment has done for others, so we want you to try it at our risk. A few minutes a day invested in our treatment can yield more gratifying results than you ever dared hope for. This is what we say to you. If you are not delighted in every way by the improved condition and general appearance of your skin in just 10 days, simply return the unused portion and we will refund not only the price you paid—but DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK! Can anything be fairer than that? You have everything to gain... and we take all the risk!

How to get the Dornol Treatment immediately: Just send your name and address to DORNOL PRODUCTS, Inc., Dept 261 C, 363 Central Park Ave., Yonkers, N. Y. Be sure to print clearly. By return mail we will ship the Dornol treatment to you in a plain package. When postman delivers the package, pay only $1.98 plus postage. Or, if you wish to save postal fee, send $2 now and we will pay postage. Which ever way you order, the DOUBLE REFUND GUARANTEE still prevails. Don't delay another minute, send for the Dornol Medicated Skin treatment with "cover-up" feature ...at once! Sorry, no Canadian C.O.D.'s.

WATCH WHAT YOU SAY, FELLA...
SHUT UP, YOU BAG OF BONES!
DARN IT! I'M TIRED OF BEING A SKINNY SCARECROW. CHARLES ATLAS SAYS HE CAN MAKE ME A NEW MAN! I'LL GAMBLE A STAMP AND GET HIS FREE BOOK.
LATER
BOY! IT DIDN'T TAKE LONG. WHAT A BUILD. NOW I'LL TAKE CARE OF THAT BULLY.

OH, JOE! YOU ARE A REAL HE-MAN, AFTER ALL.
WHAT A MAN AND HE USED TO BE SO SKINNY!

I Can Make YOU a New Man, Too, In Only 15 Minutes a Day!

CHARLES ATLAS
Holder of title, "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man."

PEOPLE used to laugh at my skinny 97-pound body. I was ashamed to strip for sports or for a swim. Girls made fun of me behind my back. THEN I discovered my body-building system, "Dynamic Tension." It made me such a complete specimen of manhood that I hold the title, "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man."

What's My Secret?

When you look in the mirror and see a healthy, husky, fellow smiling back at you — then you'll be astonished at how fast "Dynamic Tension" GETS RESULTS! It is the easy, NATURAL method and you can practice in the privacy of your own room — JUST 15 MINUTES EACH DAY. Just watch your scrawny chest and shoulder muscles begin to swell . . . those spindly arms and legs of yours bulge . . . and your whole body starts to feel "alive," full of zip and go!

Thousands are becoming husky — my way. I give you no gadgets to fool with. With "Dynamic Tension" you simply utilize the dormant muscle-power in your own body — watch it grow and multiply into real, solid LIVE MUSCLE.

FREE My 48 Page Illustrated Book is Yours — Not for $1.00 or 10c — But FREE

Send for my book, Everlasting Health and Strength. 48 pages of photos, valuable advice. Shows what Dynamic Tension can do, answers vital questions.
